Dear Judge Albuquerque:

On behalf of the Supreme Court of Japan, I would like to express my deepest admiration and respect for your many contributions to your court over the past 9 years, and for everything that you have done to strengthen the friendly relations between our two courts.

I sincerely hope and believe that the cooperation and friendship, which have been forged between the members of our respective judiciaries, will be further strengthened under your successor.

Allow me to avail myself of this opportunity to convey my very best wishes for your continuing good health and prosperity.

Sincerely yours,
